

Premium Financing Disclosure for Proposed Insureds

- ☐ American General Life Insurance Company, 2727-A Allen Parkway, Houston, TX 77019
☐ The United States Life Insurance Company in the City of New York, 175 Water St, New York, NY 10038

A member of American International Group, Inc. (AIG)

In this form, the "Company" refers to the insurance company whose name is checked above. The Company shown above is solely responsible for the obligation and payment of benefits under any policy that it may issue. No other Company is responsible for such obligations or payments.

We are providing this notice to all insureds age 67 or older who have applied for life insurance policies, as we have seen unprecedented growth in premium financing for policies in this demographic.

Premium financing is a practice that has been used in connection with the sale of life insurance policies for many years. If you are contemplating financing the purchase of life insurance or participating in the acquisition of a life insurance policy acquired with funds from a source outside your control, please consider the following issues:

- All the questions on the life insurance application should have been answered accurately and completely. Misrepresentations about your health, your financial resources or the purpose for acquiring the policy may result in claims disputes rather than payment of insurance benefits.
- Be sure you understand the transaction. Some transactions are established with a trustee or other third party who obtains financing from a lender on terms that may not be to the insured's advantage. Ask yourself, are the parties involved looking out for your best interest?
- Will a significant portion of your policy death benefit reach your beneficiaries? If most of the death benefits are not going to your beneficiaries, perhaps you should consider acquiring a more affordable policy that you control for your beneficiaries.

IMPORTANT: Any payments received as an inducement for entering into a life insurance transaction are taxable as ordinary income. Also, if you have financed premiums to pay for a policy with the understanding that you can walk away after the initial term with no personal obligation to repay the loan or loan interest, it is possible that forgiveness of debt can also create taxable income for you. If you sell your policy the gain is taxable to you. You should consult with your personal tax advisor about any questions you may have regarding the tax consequences of this transaction.

- It is important to know the lender, the trustee or other parties participating in the transaction. Ask whether you are comfortable participating in a transaction where investors or entities you do not know may end up owning a large insurance policy on your life.

This is not a complete list of all the issues that you should consider when contemplating a new life insurance transaction. If you have any questions or concerns, you can contact your Agent or call our Company at 1-800-247-8837, prompt 1.

Please acknowledge that you have received this disclosure by signing a copy of this form and returning it to the Company. Retain a copy for your records.
